

HIST221 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION

2026-2027 FALL

- The HIST221 course will be conducted remotely via the Teams platform for the following sections in the designated hours:

SEC 01: Thursday / 14:30 - 17:20

SEC 02: Friday / 14:30 – 17:20

Students may attend any of these classes regardless of the section they have enrolled in.

- All students enrolled in the course have been added to Teams and Moodle. The Moodle platform will be used for supportive purposes. To access Teams, you need to log in with your ...@student.atilim.edu.tr email address and your current password.
- You can access Teams through the "Join Live Class" link in Moodle.
- The course will be conducted based on PowerPoint slides prepared based on the source books, which are on the Moodle platform. The slides used during the classes will be uploaded as well to Moodle on a weekly basis.
- Announcements related to the course, as well as midterm and final exam dates and exam formats, are made via Moodle. Therefore, it is necessary to follow the announcements every week.
- There is a mandatory attendance requirement of 70% in our course. Attendance status is automatically tracked by the Teams program. To track attendance, you need to access the course from your ...@student.atilim.edu.tr email address via Teams.
- It is important to attend the class to take detailed notes on slides and additional information provided during the class. Since explanations during the class and additional information may also be asked in exams, attendance is important for your exam performance.
- Midterm and final exams will be in a test format. In calculating the final grade, the weight of the midterm exam will be 40% (out of 40 points), and the weight of the final exam will be 60% (out of 60 points).
